

Certificate IV in Christian Ministry and Theology

10433NAT

This course is intended to provide participants with a range of skills for a Christian ministry context:

- Understand Christian teachings and basic Christian beliefs
- Communicate Christian beliefs and teachings to some Christian and some non-Christian audiences
- Take on introductory ministry leadership roles.

There are no pre-requisites for the core competency units in this qualification, except that students must have sufficiently advanced reading and writing skills to meet course requirements.

You might find that the names of subjects actually offered are not the same as the unit titles. For example, there may be Introduction to the Old Testament, Introduction to the New Testament, and studies of particular books in the Bible.
